

Organization for Tropical Studies

Logistics manager Global Health, Summer Programme, Kruger National Park.

The Organization for Tropical Studies seeks applicants for its field-based undergraduate programme in Global Health, run in partnership with the University of Cape Town and the Kruger National Park. The programme, based in Skukuza, Kruger National Park, accepts students from both South Africa and the USA. We are seeking to fill the post in April 2014. It is two month (late May – July) grant-funded contract that is renewable, based on performance.

The successful applicants will work closely with other staff and the Programme Director in

- implementation of rigorous programmes of field research, Public Health in South Africa;
- manage the day to day logistics of the OTS programme
- managing the in field finances of OTS
- in partnership with the course coordinator and lecturers, manage the day to day operations of OTS
- teach on the programme.

Qualifications:

MSc in a related field or Biology would be a very distinct advantage

Experience in working with university students

Experience in field based education group learning and interactive, experiential teaching

Excellent oral and written communication skills in English

A strong interest in and disposition for team teaching and interdisciplinary collaboration

To apply send CV with covering letter to Amber Abrams (amberabrams@gmail.com) and Dr Laurence Kruger, contactable at Laurence.Kruger@gmail.com and 0824226225.

Applications for the post close on 21st March 2014.