By being a member of the SAHS, your fees will assist the Executive Committee's long-term vision of:

- * Fostering cross-regional and trans-national communications and networks.
- * Supporting the SAHJ (should your institution already subscribe, you might consider donating your copies to a library in Southern Africa).
- * Staff and student exchange between universities within the Southern African region.
- * Facilitating a regionally-based advisory group on archival policies, document preservation, democracy and justice.
- * Running writing workshops and providing mentorship for upcoming Southern African historians with a view to fostering publishing partnerships with respected international journals and presses.
- * Launching regional book prize and student essay prizes.
- * Financial sponsorship for faculty/academic and senior graduate students from each of the major universities in the Southern African region to attend the Biennial Conferences.
